HONDA FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Charter No. 17623

(A Corporation Chartered under the laws of the United States)

Article I. Name – Purpose

Section 1. Name. The Name of this Credit Union is as stated in Section 1 of the Charter (Approved Organization Certificate) of this Credit Union.

Section 2. Purposes. This credit union is a member-owned, democratically operated, not-for-profit organization managed by a volunteer Board of Directors. Its stated mission is to meet the credit and savings needs of members, especially individuals of modest means. The purpose of this credit union is to promote thrift among its members by affording them an opportunity to accumulate their savings and to create a source of credit for provident, business or productive purposes.

Article II. Qualification for Membership

Section 1. Field of Membership. The field of membership of this credit union is limited to that stated in Section 5 of its Charter.

Section 2. Membership Application Procedures. Application for membership from persons eligible to membership under Section 5 of the Charter shall be signed by the applicant on forms approved by the Board. Upon approval of such an application by a majority of the Directors or a majority of the members of a duly authorized Executive Committee or by a Membership Officer and upon his/her subscription to at least one share, payment of the initial installment thereon, and the payment of any uniform required entrance fee, if required by the Board, the applicant is admitted to membership. If a membership application is denied, the reasons therefore shall be furnished in writing to the person whose application is denied, upon written request.

Section 3. Maintenance of Membership Share Required. A member who withdraws all shareholdings or fails to comply with the time requirements in Article III, Section 3, thereby ceases to be a member. The Board may by resolution require persons readmitted to membership to pay another entrance fee.

Section 4. Continuation of Membership.

(a) Once a Member, Always a Member. Once a member, always a member until the person or organization chooses to withdraw its membership or is expelled under the Act and Article XIV of these Bylaws.

(b) Limitation of services. Notwithstanding any provision of these Bylaws, the Board of Directors may adopt a policy that limits credit union services to any member not in good standing.

Section 5. Member in Good Standing. A member in good standing retains all their rights and privileges in the credit union. A member not in good standing may be subject to a policy that limits credit union services. A member not in good standing is one who has engaged in any of the conduct in Article XIV, section 3, related to for-cause expulsion. In the event of a suspension of service, the member will be notified of what accounts or services have been discontinued. Subject to Article XIV and any applicable limitation of services policy approved by the Board, members not in good standing retain their right to attend, participate, and vote at the Annual and Special Meetings of the members and maintain a share account.

Article III. Shares of Members

Section 1. Par Value. The par value of each share is $5. Subscriptions to shares are payable at the time of subscription, or in installments of at least $2 per month. To establish membership in the credit union, the member must subscribe to one share in a Regular Share Savings account.

Section 2. Cap on Shares Held by One Person. The maximum amount of shares which may be held by any one member shall be established from time to time by Resolution of the Board.

Section 3. Time Periods for Payment and Maintenance of Membership Share. The shareholdings of a member who fails to complete payment of one share within 3 months of his/her admission to membership, or of a member who reduces his/her share balance below $5 and does not increase the balance to at least $5 within 3 months of the reduction, may be terminated from membership.

Section 4. Transferability. Shares may be transferred from one member to another or by written instrument in such form as the Board may prescribe. Such transfer shall carry dividend credits with it.

Section 5. Withdrawals. Members may withdraw money paid in on shares provided that:

- a. The Board has the right, at any time, to require members, or a subset of members, to give up to 60 days written notice of intention to withdraw all or part of the amounts they paid in.
- b. [Reserved].

- c. A member delinquent on any loan or obligation to the credit union may not withdraw their shares below the delinquent amount without the written approval of the Credit Committee or Loan Officer. This withdrawal restriction also applies if the member is a co-maker, endorser, or guarantor of a delinquent loan. Coverage of overdrafts under an overdraft protection policy does not constitute delinquency for purposes of this paragraph. Shares issued in an irrevocable trust as provided in Section 6 of this article are not subject to withdrawal restrictions except as stated in the Trust Agreement.
- d. The share account of a deceased member (other than one held in joint tenancy with another member) may be continued until the close of the dividend period in which the administration of the deceased's estate is completed.
- e. The Board can impose a fee for excessive share withdrawals from regular share accounts. By resolution, the Board can set the number of withdrawals not subject to a fee and the amount of the fee subject to regulations relevant to the advertising and disclosure of terms and conditions on member accounts.

Section 6. Trusts. Shares may be issued in revocable or irrevocable trust, subject to the following:

When shares are issued in a revocable trust, the settlor must be a member of this credit union in his/her own right.

When shares are issued in an irrevocable trust, either the settlor or the beneficiary must be a member of this credit union.

The name of the beneficiary must be stated in both a revocable and irrevocable trust.

For purposes of this section, shares issued pursuant to a pension plan authorized by the rules and regulations will be treated as an irrevocable trust unless otherwise indicated in the rules and regulations.

Section 7. Joint Accounts and Membership Requirements. Owners of a joint account may both be members of the credit union without opening separate accounts. For joint membership, both owners are required to fulfill all of the membership requirements including each member purchasing and maintaining at least one share in the account.

Article IV. Meetings of Members

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Board must hold the Annual Meeting of the members during the month of September/on the fourth Wednesday no later than September 30, in the county in which any office of the credit union is located or within a radius of 100 miles of an office, at the time and place as the Board determines and announces in the notice of the Annual Meeting. This Credit Union may permit virtual attendance and participation in the Annual Meeting, provided that an in-person meeting complying with the geographic requirements of this paragraph is also held.

The Secretary may deliver the notice in person, by mail to the member's address, or, for members who have opted to receive statements and notices electronically, by electronic mail. The Secretary must give notice of the Annual Meeting by posting the notice in a conspicuous place in the office of this credit union where members may read it at least 30 days before the meeting. The Secretary must also prominently display the notice on the credit union's website if such credit union maintains a website.
- b. All Special Meeting notices must state the purpose of the meeting. The officials and members may only transact business related to the stated purpose at the meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the members may be called by the Chair, or the Board of Directors upon a majority vote, or by the Supervisory Committee as provided in the Bylaws, and may be held at any location permitted for the Annual Meeting. A Special Meeting must be called by the Chair within 30 days of the receipt of a written request of 25 members or 5% of the members as of the date of the request, whichever number is larger. However, a request of no more than 500 members may be required for such meeting. The notice of a Special Meeting must be given as provided in Section 2 of this Article.

- a. Ascertain that a quorum is present.
- b. Reading and approval or correction of the minutes of the last meeting.

Section 5. Quorum. Except as hereinafter provided, at Annual or Special Meetings, 15 members shall constitute a quorum. If no quorum is present, an adjournment may be taken to a date not fewer than 7 nor more than 14 days thereafter. The members present at such adjourned meeting shall constitute a quorum, regardless of the number of members present. The same notice shall be given for the adjourned meeting as is prescribed in Section 2 of this Article for the original meeting, except that such notice shall be given not fewer than 5 days previous to the date of the meeting as fixed in the adjournment.

Section 6. Emergency Exception to In-person Quorum Requirement. The Credit Union may hold its Annual Meeting of the members, and special member meetings for authorized purposes other than member expulsion under Article XIII of these Bylaws, virtually and without an in-person quorum if all of the following conditionals apply and are certified in meeting minutes by a resolution of the majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors.

 - All or part of a community the credit union serves; or

The decision of whether to hold the Annual Meeting in-person, virtually, or both, will be made by the Board of Directors within the timeframe of the ballot and meeting notification.

Article V. Elections – Option A4

Section 1. Nomination Procedures.

- a. At least 120 days before each Annual Meeting, the Chair will appoint a Nominating Committee of three or more members. The Nominating Committee will nominate at least one member for each vacancy, including any unexpired term vacancy, for which elections are being held, and determine that the members nominated are agreeable to the placing of their names in nomination and will accept office if elected. The Nominating Committee must widely publicize the call for nominations to all members by any medium and interview each member that meets any qualifications established by the Nominating Committee.
- b. At least 90 days before the Annual Meeting, the Nominating Committee files its nominations with the Secretary of the Credit Union. At least 75 days before the Annual Meeting, the Secretary notifies, in writing, all members eligible to vote that they may make nominations for vacancies by petition signed by 1% of the members with a minimum of 20 and a maximum of 500. The Secretary may use electronic mail to notify members who have opted to receive notices or statements electronically.
- c. The written notice must specify that the Credit Union will not conduct the election by ballot and there will be no nominations from the floor when the number of nominees equals the number of open positions.

Each nominee by petition must submit a similar statement of qualifications and biographical data with the petition.
- e. The written notice must state the closing date for receiving nominations by petition. At least 40 days before the Annual Meeting, nominee(s) must file the nomination petition with the Secretary of the Credit Union. To be effective, nominee(s) must include a signed certificate with the nomination petition stating that they are agreeable to nomination and will serve if elected to office.
- f. At least 35 days before the Annual Meeting, the Secretary will post the nominations by petition along with those of the Nominating Committee in a conspicuous place in each credit union office and on the credit union's website (if the credit union maintains a website).

- a. The Board of Directors will appoint the Election Tellers;
- b. At least 30 days before the Annual Meeting, the Secretary will ensure either a printed ballot or notice of ballot is mailed to all members eligible to vote if there are sufficient nominations made by the Nominating Committee or by petition to provide more nominees than open positions. The Secretary may use electronic mail to provide the notice of ballot to members who have opted to receive notices or statements electronically;
- c. If the Credit Union conducts its elections electronically, the Secretary will ensure the transmission of the following materials to each eligible voter using the following procedures:
 1. One notice of balloting stating the names of the candidates for the Board of Directors and the candidates for other separately identified offices or committees. The notice must include a brief statement of qualifications and biographical data for each candidate in a form approved by the Board of Directors. The Secretary may use electronic mail to provide the notice of ballot to members who have opted to receive notices or statements electronically.
 2. One mail ballot that conforms to Section 2(d) of this article, as well as instructions for the electronic election procedure, including how to access and use the system and the timeframe for voting.  4. Election Tellers must receive ballots no later than midnight, 5 calendar days before the Annual Meeting.
 5. Election Tellers will tally the vote and the chair will make the result of the vote public at the Annual Meeting.

6. If the electronic balloting system malfunctions, the Board of Directors may, in its discretion, hold the election by mail ballot only. The mail ballots must conform to Section 2(d) of this article and the Secretary must mail them once more to all eligible members 30 days before the Annual Meeting. The Board may make reasonable adjustments to the voting time frames above, or postpone the Annual Meeting when necessary, to complete the elections before the Annual Meeting.
- d. If the Credit Union conducts its election by mail ballot, the secretary will ensure the mailing of the following materials to each member using the following procedures:
1. One ballot, clearly identified as the ballot, with the names of the candidates for the Board of Directors and the candidates for other separately identified Offices or Committees printed in random order. A brief statement of qualifications and biographical data for each candidate, in a form approved by the Board of Directors, will accompany the ballot;

 6. The Election Tellers will verify, or cause to be verified, the name and credit union account number of the voter as appearing on the identification form. The Tellers will retain the verified identification form and the sealed ballot envelope until the vote count is completed. In the event of a questionable or challenged identification form, the tellers must retain the identification form and sealed ballot envelope together until the verification or challenge is resolved;
 7. Election Tellers must receive ballots mailed to them no later than midnight 5 days before the date of the Annual Meeting;
 8. The Election Tellers will tally the vote. They will verify the result at the Annual Meeting and the chair will make the result of the vote public at the Annual Meeting.]

- b. If there are sufficient nominations made by the Nominating Committee or by petition to provide more than one nominee for each open position, at least 30 days before the Annual Meeting, the Secretary will ensure a printed ballot is mailed to all members of the credit union who are eligible to vote and who have submitted a written or electronic request for an absentee ballot;

Article VI. Board of Directors

Section 1. Number of Members. The Board shall consist of 9 members, all of whom shall be members of this credit union. The number of Directors may be changed to an odd number not fewer than 5 nor more than 15 by resolution of the Board. No reduction in the number of Directors may be made unless corresponding vacancies exist as a result of deaths, resignations, expirations of terms of office or other actions provided in these Bylaws. A copy of the Resolution of the Board covering any increase or decrease in the number of Directors shall be filed with the official copy of the Bylaws of this Credit Union.

Section 2. Composition of Board and Committees.

One Director may be a paid employee of the credit union. The Board may appoint a Management Official who may be a member of the Board and one or more assistant Management Officials who may not be a member of the Board. If the Board permits the Management Official or Assistant Management Official(s) to serve on the Board, he or she may not serve as the Chair.

No immediate family members, or those persons living in the same household, of a Director may be a paid employee of the credit union.

The total number of Directors serving who fall into the categories below must not constitute a majority of the Board:

- Management Official plus Assistant Management Official(s) plus other employees;

No Committee member(s) may be a paid employee of the credit union. No immediate family members, or those persons living in the same household, of a Committee member(s) may be a paid employee of the Credit Union.

No Director or Committee member, who is not then a paid employee of the credit union, may become a paid employee of this credit union for a minimum of 2 years from the date the official terminates his or her position as a Director or Committee member unless the employee position to be filled exists as a result of a death or disability.

Section 3. Terms of Office. Regular terms of office for Directors shall be for periods of 2 or 3 years as the Board shall determine: provided however, that all regular terms shall be for the same number of years and until the election and qualification of successors. The regular terms shall be so fixed at the beginning, or upon any increase or decrease in the number of Directors, that approximately an equal number of regular terms shall expire at each Annual Meeting.

Section 4. Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board or Supervisory Committee shall be filled by a vote of a majority of the Directors then holding office. Directors so appointed shall hold office only until the next Annual Meeting, at which any unexpired terms shall be filled by vote of the members, and until the qualification of their successors. Members of the Supervisory Committee so appointed shall hold office until the first regular meeting of the Board following the next Annual Meeting of members at which the regular term expires and until the appointment and qualification of their successors.

Section 5. Regular and Special Meetings. A regular meeting of the Board must be held each month at the time and place fixed by resolution of the Board. (One regular meeting each calendar year must be conducted in person. By resolution, the Board can require more than one meeting each year to be conducted in person.) If a quorum is present in person for the annual in person meeting, the remaining Board members may participate using audio or video teleconference methods. The other regular meetings may be conducted using audio or video teleconference methods. The Chair, or in the Chair's absence the ranking Vice Chair, may call a Special Meeting of the Board at any time and must do so upon written request of a majority of the Directors then holding office. Unless the Board prescribes otherwise, the Chair, or in the Chair's absence the ranking Vice Chair, will fix the time and place of Special Meetings. Notice of all meetings will be given in such manner as the Board may from time to time by resolution prescribe. Special Meetings may be conducted using audio or video teleconference methods. The Board may take action and vote on Resolutions without a meeting. The Board must first obtain unanimous consent for the action in writing or by electronically recorded means.

Section 8. Attendance and Removal.

- a. If a Director or Committee member, if applicable, fails to attend regular meetings of the Board, respectively, for 3 consecutive months, or 4 meetings within a calendar year, or otherwise fails to perform any of the duties devolving upon him/her as a Director or Committee member, the office may be declared vacant by the Board and the vacancy filled as herein provided in the Bylaws.

When designated by the Board, any Assistant Management Official may also act as Management Official during the Management Official's temporary absence or temporary inability to act.

Section 8. Board Powers Regarding Employees. The Board employs, fixes the compensation, and prescribes the duties of employees as necessary, and has the power to remove employees, unless it has delegated these powers to the Chief Financial Officer or Management Official. Management does not have the power or duty to employ, prescribe the duties of, or remove necessary clerical and auditing assistance employed or used by the Supervisory Committee or remove any Loan Officer appointed by the Credit Committee.

1. Article VIII. (No Credit Committee)

Section 1. Records of Loan Officer; Prohibition on Loan Officer Disbursing Funds. Each Loan Officer must maintain a record of each approved or not approved transaction within 7 days of the filing of the application or request. This record then becomes a part of the records of the credit union. No individual may disburse funds of this Credit Union for any application or share withdrawal that the individual has approved as a Loan Officer.

Section 2. Loan Officer Duties. For each loan, the Loan Officer must review the character and financial condition of the applicant and their surety, if any. The Loan Officer will ascertain the applicant's ability to fully and promptly repay the loan. The Credit Union may use an automated loan processing system to conduct this review, subject to the conditions set forth in Section 3, below. Where appropriate, the Loan Officer should provide, or refer applicants to, financial counseling assistance.

Section 3. Unapproved Loans Prohibited. The Loan Officer must approve all loans. Loan terms and rates must comply with applicable law and regulations. If the Credit Union uses an automated lending system, the Loan Officer must review all loan applications the system has denied, and review at least a sample of approved loans to screen for fraud and ensure the automated system is functioning within the lending policies the Board has established.

Section 4. Lending Procedures. The Loan Officer or automated lending system determine the required security, if any, and the terms of repayment for each application. All lending decisions and loan terms must comply with applicable law and regulation, these Bylaws, and Board policy. The security furnished must be adequate in quality and character as well as consistent with sound lending practices. When the Credit Union does not have the funds available to make all the loans requested, the Loan Officer should give preference, in all cases, to the smaller applications if the need and credit factors are nearly equal.

Article IX. Supervisory Committee

Section 1. Appointment and Membership. The Supervisory Committee shall be appointed by the Board from among the members of this credit union, one of whom may be a Director other than the Treasurer. The Board shall determine the number of members on the Committee, which shall not be fewer than 3 nor more than 5. No employee of this credit union may be appointed to the Committee. Regular terms of the Committee members shall be for periods of 1, 2 or 3 years as the Board shall determines: provided, however, that all regular terms shall be for the same number of years and until the appointment and qualification of successors. The regular terms shall expire at the first regular meeting of the Board following each Annual Meeting.

Section 2. Officers of Supervisory Committee. The Supervisory Committee members shall choose from among their number a Chair and a Secretary. The Secretary of the Supervisory Committee shall prepare, maintain and have custody of full and correct records of all actions taken by it. The offices of Chair and Secretary may be held by the same person.

Section 3. Duties of Supervisory Committee.

- a. The Supervisory Committee makes, or arranges for, the audits, and prepares and submits the written reports required by the Act and regulations. The Committee may employ and use the clerical and auditing assistance required to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may request the Board to provide compensation for this assistance. It will prepare and forward to the Administration required reports.
- b. If all Director positions become vacant at once, the Supervisory Committee immediately assumes the role of the Board of Directors. The Supervisory Committee acting as the Board must generally call and hold a Special Meeting to elect a Board. That Board will serve until the next Annual Meeting. They must hold the Special Meeting at least 7 but no more than 14 days after all Director positions became vacant. Nominations for the Board at the Special Meeting are by petition or from the floor. However, the Supervisory Committee may forego the Special Meeting if the next Annual Meeting will occur within 45 days after all the Director positions become vacant.
- c. The Supervisory Committee acting as the Board may not act on policy matters. However, Directors elected at a Special Meeting have the same powers as Directors elected at the Annual Meeting.

Section 4. Verification of Accounts. The Supervisory Committee will cause the verification of the accounts of all members with the records of the financial officer from time-to-time and not less frequently than as required by the Act and Regulations. The Committee must maintain a record of such verification.

Section 5. Powers of Supervisory Committee – Removal of Directors and Committee

Members. By unanimous vote the Supervisory Committee may suspend until the next meeting of the members any Director, Board Officer, or member of the Loan Review Committee. In the event of any such suspension, the Supervisory Committee must call a Special Meeting of the members to act on the suspension, which meeting must be held not fewer than 7 nor more than 14 days after the suspension. The Chair of the committee acts as Chair of the meeting, unless the members select another person to act as Chair.

Section 6. Powers of Supervisory Committee – Special Meetings. By affirmative vote of a majority of its members, the Supervisory Committee may call a Special Meeting of the members to consider any violation of the provisions of the Act, the Regulations, or of the Charter or Bylaws of this Credit Union, or to consider any practice of this credit union which the Committee deems to be unsafe or unauthorized.

Article X. Organization Meeting

Section 1. Initial Meeting. Within 90 days of receipt of the approved organization certificate (Charter), the subscriber thereto shall meet for the purpose of nominating and electing a Board of Directors. Failure of the subscribers to elect a Board of Directors within the 90-day period or request an extension therefore from the Administration shall be cause for revocation of the Charter.

Section 2. Election of Directors and Credit Committee. The subscribers shall elect a Chair and a Secretary for the meeting. The subscribers shall then elect from their number, or from those eligible to become members of this credit union, a Board of Directors, to hold office until the first Annual Meeting of the members and until the election and qualification of their respective successors. If not already a member, every person elected under this section or appointed under Section 3 of this Article must qualify as a Director or appointed as a Supervisory Committee member does not qualify as a member within 30 days of such an election or appointment, his or her office shall automatically become vacant and shall be filled by the Board.

Article XIII. Reserved

Article XIV. Expulsion and Withdrawal

Section 1. Expulsion Procedure. A Credit Union may expel a member in one of three ways. The first way is through a Special Meeting. Under this option, a Credit Union must call a Special Meeting of the members, provide the member the opportunity to be heard, and obtain a two-thirds vote of the members present at the Special Meeting to expel a member. The second way to expel a member is under a nonparticipation policy given to each member that follows the requirements found in the Act. The third way to expel a member is by a two-thirds vote of a quorum of the Directors of the Credit Union. A Credit Union can only expel a member for cause and through a vote of the Directors of the Credit Union if it follows the policy for expulsion in section 2.

Section 2. A Credit Union's Directors may vote to expel a member for cause if the Credit Union has provided a written copy of this Article or the optional standard disclosure notice to each member of the Credit Union. The communication of the policy, along with all notices required under this section, must be legible, written in plain language, reasonably understandable by ordinary members, and may be provided electronically only in the case of members who have elected to receive electronic communications from the Credit Union.

If a member will be subject to expulsion, the member shall be notified in writing in advance, along with the reason for such expulsion. The notice must include, at minimum, (i) relevant dates, (ii) sufficient detail for the member to understand the grounds for expulsion, (iii) the member's right to request a hearing, (iv) how to request a hearing, (v) the procedures related to the hearing, (vi) notification that, if a hearing is not requested, membership will terminate after 60 calendar days, and (vii) if applicable, a general statement on the effect of expulsion related to the member's accounts or loans at the Credit Union. The notice cannot include only conclusory statements regarding the reason for the member's expulsion. The notice must also tell the member that any complaints related to the member's potential expulsion should be submitted to NCUA's Consumer Assistance Center if the complaint cannot be resolved directly with the Credit Union. The FCU must maintain a copy of the provided notice for its records. The notice shall be provided in person, by mail to the member's address, or, if the member has elected to receive electronic communications from the credit union, may be provided electronically.

A member shall have 60 calendar days from the date of receipt of a notification to request a hearing from the Board of Directors of the Credit Union. A member is not entitled to attend the hearing in person, but the member must be provided a meaningful opportunity to present the member's case orally to the FCU board through a videoconference hearing. The member may choose to provide a written submission to the Board instead of a hearing with oral statements. If a member cannot participate in a videoconference hearing, then the FCU may offer a telephonic hearing. If a member does not request a hearing or provide a written submission, the member shall be expelled after the end of the 60-day period after receipt of the notice. If a member requests a hearing, the Board of Directors must provide the member with a hearing. At the hearing, the Board of Directors may not raise any rationale for expulsion that is not explicitly included in the notice to the member.

After the hearing, the Board of Directors of the Credit Union must hold a vote within 30 calendar days on expelling the member. If a member is expelled, either through the expiration of the 60-day period or a vote to expel the member after a hearing, written notice of the expulsion must be provided to the member in person, by mail to the member's address, or, if the member has elected to receive electronic communications from the Credit Union, may be provided electronically. The notice must provide information on the effect of the expulsion, including information related to account access and any deductions by the Credit Union related to amounts due. The notice must also tell the member that any complaints related to their expulsion should be submitted to NCUA's Consumer Assistance Center if the complaint cannot be resolved directly with the Credit Union. The notice must also state that the member has an opportunity to request reinstatement.

A member expelled under this authority must be given an opportunity to request reinstatement of membership. The FCU may act on a reinstatement request through a majority vote of a quorum of the Directors of the Credit Union, a majority vote of the members of the Credit Union present at a Special Meeting, or a majority vote of members at an Annual Meeting, provided the Annual Meeting occurs within 90 days of the member's reinstatement request. If the FCU holds a meeting of the members to vote on the reinstatement request, an in-person vote is not required. An FCU is only required to hold a Board vote or Special Meeting in response to a member's first reinstatement request following expulsion.

FCUs are required to maintain records related to any member expelled through a vote of the Directors of the credit union for six years.

Section 3. The term cause in this Article means

- A. A substantial or repeated violation of the membership agreement of the Credit Union;
- B. A substantial or repeated disruption, including dangerous or abusive behavior, to the operations of a Credit Union, as defined below; or
- C. Fraud, attempted fraud, or conviction of other illegal conduct in relation to the Credit Union, including the credit union's employees conducting business on behalf of the Credit Union.

If the FCU is considering expulsion of a member due to repeated non-substantial violations of the membership agreement or repeated disruptions to the credit union's operations, the Credit Union must provide written notice to the member at least once prior to the notice of expulsion, and the violation or conduct must be repeated within two years after having been notified of the violation. The written notice must state the specific nature of the violation or conduct and that if the violation or conduct occurs again, the member may be expelled from the Credit Union.

Dangerous or abusive behavior includes the following: (1) violence, intimidation, physical threats, harassment, or physical or verbal abuse of officials or employees of the credit union, members, or agents of the Credit Union. This only includes (a) actions while on Credit Union premises or otherwise related to Credit Union activities, and through use of telephone, mail, email, or other electronic method; (b) behavior that causes or threatens damage to credit union property; or (c) unauthorized use or access of credit union property. Expressions of frustration with the credit union or its employees through elevated volume and tone; expressions of intent to seek lawful recourse, regardless of perceived merit; or repeated interactions with credit union employees are insufficient to constitute dangerous or abusive behavior. Additionally, members cannot be expelled due to or in retaliation for their complaints to the NCUA or any other regulatory agency or law enforcement, and members who are employees or former employees of the FCU cannot be expelled for any protected whistleblower activities.

Section 4. Expulsion or withdrawal does not relieve a member of any liability to the credit union. The Credit Union will pay all of the member's shares upon the member's expulsion or withdrawal less any amounts due to the Credit Union.

Section 5. An expulsion of a member pursuant to section 2 shall be done individually, on a case-by-case basis, and neither the NCUA Board nor any Credit Union may expel a class of members.

In the event of the disqualification of any Director respecting any matter presented to the Board for deliberation or determination; and in such event the remaining qualified Directors present at the meeting, if constituting a quorum with the disqualified Director or Directors, may exercise with respect to this matter, by majority vote, all the powers of the Board. In the event of the disqualification of any member of the Supervisory Committee, such committee member shall withdraw from such deliberation or determination.

Section 5. Records. The Board must preserve copies of the organization certificate of this Credit Union, its Bylaws, any amendments to the Bylaws, and any special authorizations by the Administration. The Board must attach copies of the organization certificate and field of membership amendments as an appendix to these Bylaws. The Board must record all returns of nominations, elections, and proceedings of all regular and Special Meetings of the members and Directors in the minutes of this Credit Union. The respective Chair or presiding Officer and the person serving as Secretary of the meeting must sign all minutes of the meetings of the members, the Board, and the Committees. Section 1. Amendment procedures. The Board may adopt amendments of these Bylaws by an affirmative two-thirds vote of the Directors. Written NCUA approval is required for the amendment of the Bylaws to become effective. After adopting amendments, the Credit Union will update the Bylaws posted on its website (if such credit union maintains a website) and ensure that members seeking to inspect the Bylaws receive the most current version of the Bylaws. To adopt amendments to the Credit Union's Charter, Board Members
